IN ANNUAL CONVENTION

GATHERING OF FATHER MA-THEW MEN AT OLYPHANT.

At the First Day of the Meeting of the Catholic Total Abstinence ered by Rev. P. J. Murphy, of phy, J. C Collier and Martin Grimes. Olyphant.

The twentieth annual convention of the Catholic Total Abstinence Union of the Scranton diocese was called to order at 10 o'clock yesterday morning at the Father Mathew opera house, Olyphant, with 148 delegates present, representing all but twelve of the various societies in the diocese. The remainder of the societies were represented by delegates who handed in their credentials later in the day. Prior to the assembly of the delegates the members of the Olyphant society and a large number of the visitors attended the celebration of low mass at St. Patrick's Catholic church. The mass was celebrated by the president of the Union, Rev. J. J. Curran, of Wilkes-

The convention proper opened with prayer by the president, followed by the appointment of the following committees and secretaries:

SOUND, PRACTICAL TALK.

Reverend Fathers and Delegates of the Dio-cesan Convention: In the name of the citizens of Olyphant, I extend to you a cordial welcome. We feel honored in having such a distinguished convention held in our town, and I hope you will erjoy your short visit with us, and return to your nomes benefited by your sejourn in Olyphant, and pleased with the hospitality and generosity

I invoke the Holy Spirft to assist you to enact wise legislation for the advancement of the tem-perance cause. The industrial revolution of the twentieth century has compelled men to organ-ize for protection. The great questions of the day are of a social nature. The individual to be successful, must identify hemself with the social civilization around him. Clubs are formed for social amusement; parties are organized for political advancement; and capital is merged into immense trusts, controlling the chief industrics of the country.

Your union has for its object the promotion of the temperance cause. It is not an organization for collecting dues, and purchasing budges and gaudy banners. It should have nothing to do with the management of opera houses or dancing halls. Every society should have a hall devoted exclusively to the work of the society, and located in the very heart of the town.

The hall should possess a lecture room, bath room, smoking and amusement apartments, and a public tibrary. The doors of the library and reading room must be open at all times for the members and their friends. What you need in the union is more work, and less display of ora-

Work develops the very soul of the organization. Your object is to promote decent living, and good thinking among your associates. This is a noble and patriotic work, and you have the approval of all good men in your endeavor. You are inducing men to abstain from intoxicants through moral suasion, and not by coercion. What you want is the inspiration of the Holy Ghost in your work, and then comes love, which is above all selfishness. This love is necessary in your organization, and you must be in harmony with one another. I approve of the quarterly tallies held by your societies, as they are very conductive to the upbuilding of your organizations, but more love and more work is needed in the cause. You must pray for your fallen brother and help lift him up to his place in society.

POINTED TO Y. M. C. A.

During his remarks, the speaker took occasion to refer to the substantial building now being erected in Scranton by the Young Men's Christian association, and pointed to it as an example for the Catholic societies to follow. There is nothing more conducive to the There is nothing more conducive to the upbuilding of the societies, he said, than the erection of buildings to meet the requirements of the community in which the societies are located. We grow tired of talking about the degradation of the drunkard. What we want today is practical work and buildings to the amendments was deterred until this morning's session.

Rev. Moore, of Freeland, a noted address the convention, and gave a stirring address. He is a very forceful and earnest speaker, and eloquently illustrated the three attributes of life—intelligence, freedom and love—as be-

AFTERNOON SESSION.

The afternoon session was called to order by President Curran at 2.15 o'clock with prayer. The opening song was "Annie Lauric," and the opening address of welcome was delivered by Burgess John J. Manning, of Olyphant. Rev. P. J. McManus, of Green Ridge, followed with an advisory address. "Take care that you do important work for the benefit of your members," he said, "and may your cause always bring happiness to your members,"

Secretary Timothy Burke, of Scranton, followed with his annual report, in which he announced a total of seventy-four societies in the Union, with a membership of 10,169 at the present time. The receipts for the year were $1,677,42, and the expenditures were $965.58. The report was accepted and referred to the auditing committee.

Treasurer W. R. Malloy, of Carbondale, reported a balance on hand at the last audit of $554.30, and a balance now on hand of $713.34 This report was also referred to the auditing committee. uted, and new societies were added in West Scranton and Wilkes-Barre. The quarterly conventions have dor noble work during the year, and kep the movement constantly before the public. He suggested holding these conventions under the auspices of al societies not too far removed from the centre of population. The following recommendations were offered:

SOME RECOMMENDATIONS. First-That a committee of five be appointed t

Third-That this committee attend the state onvention of Pennsylvania and prevail upon that assemblage to consider the advisability of having their societies join the union.

The report was enthusiastically reeived and ordered spread on the minites. Rev. J. J. McCabe, of Auburn Centre, the spiritual director of the union, was seen to enter the hall, and was called to the stage, and made a brief address, in which he hoped for the success of the convention. The reports of the four district presidents were called for, and were made by William Peel, of Carbondale; M. S. THE MARKETS

Wall Street Review.

New York, May 21,-The tone of resistance to depression was still manifest in today's stock market, notwithstanding its dull and narrow profewional character. There was not much assistance in the way of strength derived from the coal stocks either, which were dull and sluggish all day until just before the close, when priess hardened there and elsewhere in the market. Yesterday's hopes that the activities of the Civic Federation were promising for a settlement of the strike were somewhat dashed by the aggreed tone taken by the coal operators towards those activities. Wall street, however, maintains its conviction that the two sides to the struggle are not very far a art and both averse to a long and costly struggle. The consequence is a constant expectation of the outcome of a settlement. The conspicuous strength of Canadian Pacific and its affiliated lines continued today and was a notable influence of the whole market. The strength of the stock was unexplained beyond floor room gossip of the imminence of a corner and a revival of the hopes of a strong trans-Atlantic steamship line in the interest of the line and to be subsidized by the Canadian government. Another sustaining factor was the wide advances of stocks in the usually inactive stocks and of minor railread stocks available for combinations and absorptions. The demand for those stocks was stimulated by the details of the plan for taking over the Chicago, Indianapolis and Louisville in the joint interest of the Southern Railway and the Louisville and Nashville and the acquisition of the Ann Arbor in the interest of the Wabash. The stocks immediately concerned in those deals were rather heavy, but buying of a large number of other stocks could be traced to their influence. A jump of 21 points in Cleveland, Lorain and Wheeling and of 5 points in the preferred were examples. Some — of strength was given to the soft coal — is but theying of a large number of other stocks could be traced to their influence of Amalgamated Copper at intervals during the day. A further advance in the price of raw copper here and strength in the profer of raw copper here and strength in the price of raw copper her fessional character. There was not much assistance in the way of strength derived from the

Connolly & Wallace Scranton's Shopping Center

The store of one idea may be very valuable to many people, but it takes the store of many ideas to give satisfactory service to every

Of course we make money-our prices couldn't be so low if we didn't. It's the unsuccessful store that has to make its prices high.

Black and White Materials for Knights Templar Decorations

We secured 100 pieces of Fine Black Lawns, 30 inches wide, that are worth 10c a yard, which we will sell at 5c a yard. White Muslin, 30 inches wide, at 5c, 6c, 7c yard. White Cambric 5c yard. At these low prices every one can decorate profusely.

The usual way is to have only the neck fit exactly in a shirt-only two sizes of bodies for all sizes of shirts. One size is too big for a a 14 or a 151/2c man, the other is too small for a 15 or 17 man.

The Connolly & Wallace way is to have the shirt all over correspond to the size of the neck. This makes us get all our shirts made especially for us, and while we are going to this trouble you may be sure we make a great many other changes which you will recognize when you wear the shirts $1.00, $1.50 and $2.00-Not a few at each price, but a great many.

The Ribbons You Want

Are here at an average third under regular prices. Other stores are advertising ribbons under price, yet when we compare we find ours one and two cents a yard less, or one and two grades better for Imitation Point de Venise, Filet, Batiste, Cluny, Brussels Point and Net-Top Laces, from one of the greatest makers of imitation laces in St. Gall, and that means in the world-for St. Gall makes the finest of all imitations. Not short pieces, but full lengths from which we will cut any number of yards you want. Some of the laces are in full sets-insertions and several widths of edgings alike. There are All-Over Laces, Edges, Galoons, Straight Insertions and some which are detachable.

Venice All-Over, $1.00, $1.25, $1.50, $2.00 and $4.00. Edges and Laces, 15c, 20c, 25c, 30c, 35c, 40c, 50c, 75c and $1.00. Black, White and Colored Silk Lace Galoon. 25c to $2.25. Straight Insertions. 5c to $1.50. Galoons, 8c to $2.50. Black Chantilly Galoons, 6c to $1.50 yard.
